

Indonesia Focus

General Import Requirements into Indonesia

- For importations of alcoholic beverages, the consignee must obtain a permit from the Food and Drug Administration (POM) or Ministry of Health.
- For importations of animal products, the consignee is required to obtain a certificate from the Director General Food & Drugs-Administrations Department. For leather raw materials, the shipper must provide a Certificate of Origin (COO) and Certificate of Health, and the consignee must have an import license and quarantine permit from the Director General of Agriculture. Goods originating from Zimbabwe are prohibited.
- For importations of off coffee, the consignee is required to obtain a quarantine permit from the Ministry of Agriculture.
- Imports of used items/secondhand items requires the consignee to provide supporting paperwork from Ministry of Trade Department and from SGS/Surveyor from Origin
- Imports of more than 10 compact discs per HAWB per consignee requires an Import License from Ministry of Trade
- Imports of medical equipment require the consignee to obtain a permit from the health department.
- Imports of plants and plant products require a quarantine permit from the Ministry of Agriculture and the shipper must provide a phytosanitary cert.
- For imports of radio equipment, wireless and mobile telecommunication devices and equipment, the consignee must obtain a permit from the Ministry of Post and Telecommunications.
- Imports of video cassettes are subject to censorship.
- For imports of textile and textile products with a value exceeding USD 1000 per HAWB, the consignee must obtain a Certificate from SGS/Surveyor from origin, and a permit from Ministry of Trade Department specifying its status as an Importing Producer of Textile products (IPT/Importir Produsen Tekstil)
- Imports of printed materials except for personal/interoffice/banking/business require a permit from the District Attorney regardless of the quantity or purpose of import. Consignee/importer also needs to submit a sample of the printed material to the District Attorney's office. Each permit is valid only for a single importation.

- Imports of all tobacco products require a permit from the Ministry of Agriculture.